Sura's Place
수라의 처소

A person needs a lot to skills to live a meaningful life !

One of crucial skills is wits !

A person needs to act accordingly in given situations. You know, like backing off when he needs to be gone.

Do not upload this project to online manga readers!
Espicially Mangafox & Mangahere !

And I swear to God that Han-Gyul is lacking wits !

Fine, he's a guy with a dead brain. Let's accept that. What's pissing me off more is -

Your uninterested face while I am telling you this !

Have you given up on life or something? Going to be the Buddha or something? Aren't you worried that he's getting close to So-Hui?!

You two are alike.

???

You and Han-Gyul...

Very alike...

It's a fact.

That ... is ask the same !

Autumn leaves and cosmos flowers ! They were weird ! I didn't bother you!

I was trying to solve what could have been major scientific discoveries !

Have you talked to Ga-ul about those two "mysteries" ?

It's easy to ask. Why couldn't you and won't you still ?

... Well, what's the point now ? I mean it's Ga-Ul ... it kinda feels like that's norm for him when it comes to stuff like that. Why don't I ask him ...? Hmm ...

It's okay.

You are incapable of answering that.

It's fun to watch you two like this. I can still smile. I think that's what really matters in the end.

And don't worry too much about Han-Gyul. He may be slow like you said but he isn't so "empty" as you think.

Your bulging head is still the same.

Why aren't you with Ga-Ul today anyway ?

He said ... something about climbing a mountain.

What?

Is there a mountain around here ?
